We have lots of new books already ordered for our next school year. How would you like to be the ‘first reader’ of one or more of these books? We will meet 5 times over the summer, come whenever you can, each time we will browse, select books, and take them home to read. When we meet again we will discuss the books and choose more! If you are the ‘first reader’ of a book we will label the inside in your honor and you will become next year’s ‘expert’ on this book!
